

Mark Jackson
513 Sycamore Dr.
Burkburnett, TX 76354
(940) 569-9866

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Quilt Show to Benefit the Burkburnett Boys and Girls Club

Burkburnett, TX. The Quilters of Burkburnett will be holding the First Annual “Friendship Display of Quilts” on Saturday, October 6, 2007 in the Burkburnett Community Center to benefit the Burkburnett Boys and Girls Clubs. This will be a non-judged show for all to enjoy. The City of Burkburnett will also be hosting its 7th Annual Friendship Festival on the same Saturday at Friendship Park. This event began in 2001 and has been growing every year, with last year’s attendance topping 3000 people. It was thought that the Quilt Show would add to the celebration and offer the attendees a new venue to visit.

“This event will showcase the exceptional talent and creativity of the areas finest quilters,” said Lori Wyatt, owner of Texas Twisters Quilts. Along with the local talent, many historical quilts will be displayed, including a 1936 Texas Centennial Quilt, owned by Don Hohenstein. Besides the quilt show, there will be vendors, quilt sales and a quilt raffle. But the main focus of the event is to raise money for the Burkburnett Boys and Girls Club. “We need to stand together and support our local charitable organizations. The outstanding services that are provided produce a direct benefit to our local community,” stated Kimberly Jackson, owner of the Stitching Depot Quilt Shop in historic downtown Burkburnett, Texas.

If you wish to display a quilt, new or historical, please contact Kimberly Jackson at (940) 569-0804 or visit <http://www.quiltshow.stitchingdepot.com> If you would like to join the Quilters of Burkburnett in sponsorship, please contact Lori Wyatt at (940) 569-8108.